ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER - CHICAGO
CAR SERVICE DEPARTMENT

E. A. Kuras, Supvr., Business Machine Bureau; G. W. Engelmann, Supvr., Car Record-Mileage-Tax Bureau; G. W. Boehm, Supvr., Diversion-Fruit Block-Machine Bureau; J. W. MacMillan, Supvr., Refgn.-Heater Service Bureau.

Mabel I. Allan, Supvr., Comptometer-Typing Bureau; H. O. Heyse, Asst. Office Manager; M. C. Kruse, Supvr., File-Mail-Stock Bureau.

An important segment of the Chicago Office, under the direction of Mr. R. J. Keating, Assistant General Manager, is the Supervisory force who have the responsibility of directing the flow of work through their respective bureaus in an expeditious and economical manner, as well as carry out the policies of our company.

Mr. G. W. Boehm, Supervisor, Diversion-Fruit Block-Teletype Bureau, is responsible for the multiple operations of that bureau, issuing Operating Circulars necessary governing the proper protection of Diversions, disposition requests for cars on track and foreign lines' freight schedules; also, the dissemination of Fruit Block and passing records by IBM and telegraphic procedures to the Eastern General Agency Office for distribution to the perishable trade, as well as other PFE and parent lines' offices systemwide.

Mr. J. W. MacMillan, Supervisor, Refrigeration-Heater Service Bureau, is accountable for the maintenance and audit of protective service records, auditing and approval of bills payable governing ice, salt, fuel and standby service furnished on and received from foreign line railroads. He also supervises the furnishing of protective service records to parent and foreign lines' claim agents, and arranges for inspections, outturn reportings and return of special equipment involved in test shipments.

The Car Record-Mileage-Tax Bureau, under the direction of Mr. G. W. Engelmann, maintains records relating to the movement and earnings of refrigerator cars, trailers, containers, and flatcars owned or leased by our company. From interchange records and reportings of mileage or per diem earnings of PFE equipment received from all railroads data is compiled and recorded for use in the preparation of statements covering equipment activity, estimates of anticipated earnings, reports of tax deductions and other information required by the Executive Office and Auditor.

Mr. E. A. Kuras, Supervisor, Business Machine Bureau, controls the programming and operation of all IBM work, formulates procedures applicable to machine processing of records required by other bureaus of the Chicago Office and the rendition of records and/or statements required by the office of the Vice President and General Manager, and Auditor.

Mr. H. O. Heyse, Assistant Office Manager, in addition to assisting the Office Manager, has the responsibility of Supervising timekeeping and the preparation of payrolls for the Chicago Office and its 14 General Agency Offices. He also has the responsibility for accounting covering personal expense accounts and issuance of drafts covering, distribution to operating accounts of labor and bills payable, inventory of all office equipment, the continuing maintenance of personnel records, and details relating to office leases and agreements covering the Eastern General Agency Offices.

Mr. M. C. Kruse, Supervisor, File-Mail-Stock Bureau, is responsible for maintaining files, receiving and routing incoming mail and packaging, stamping and forwarding outgoing mail. In addition he supervises all copying work, requisitions and distributes stationery supplies and arranges for the destruction of records in accordance to ICC retention periods.

Miss Mabel I. Allan, Supervisor, Comptometer-Typing Bureau, is responsible for work requiring computation received from all bureaus as well as all dictation and typing performed by the Stenographic pool.

PERSONAL

Mr. F. E. Dosch:

You are familiar with the current series of pictures and articles in our monthly PFE News Letter covering various offices and facilities, with the object being to acquaint others with the functions and activities of all departments.

It has been suggested the December News Letter feature the Sacramento Superintendent's Office and the Roseville Agency; therefore, shall appreciate your making the necessary arrangements to enable you to forward the following material to reach me not later than December 8:

1. Group photograph (jumbo size) of yourself with Messrs. Flynn, Anderson and Clark.

2. A write-up of not more than three-quarters of a page describing the activities and functions of your office. This to be followed by a one-quarter page description of the functions of the Roseville Agency. These outlines will of necessity have to be brief in order to fit in the space to be allowed.
